

“Full of soul and known for her captivating voice”(Lucky Magazine), Lisa Marie Smith became “a Las Vegas favorite...” (Robin Leach) after being a headliner in multiple shows on the strip.

Lisa Marie Smith has been a staple performer in multiple “Best of Las Vegas” awarded productions. For 4 years, she led the award-winning production show PIN UP as the costar and headlining singer. She then joined the Actor’s Equity original cast of BAZ: Star Crossed Love at the Palazzo (featured on Ellen, Dancing With the Stars, and more!) . Currently, she is one of the Lead Vocalists of The Mayfair Supper Club inside the Bellagio, simultaneously runs a successful corporate band, “LMS”, and is the owner of LMS Voice Studios. One of her most notable performances was singing the National Anthem for a televised boxing event at Tmobile Arena that was viewed by over 20 million people. Not too long after, Lisa was invited as the vocalist for the 4th of July National Anthem on the Las Vegas Fireworks display by Caesar’s Entertainment.

Lisa Marie has a degree in Musical Theater from The Boston Conservatory at Berklee School of Music. There, she was trained heavily in both classical and contemporary voice instruction, advanced acting for the stage and film (with an emphasis on Shakespeare!) and intermediate dance. She has always had a deep connection to the “Entertainment Capital of the World”, and is proud to call Las Vegas her home for the last 20 years. Voted as one of the Top 100 Women of Influence of Las Vegas, Lisa Marie is continuing to develop a strong following locally, as well being invited to travel around the world to share her love of music. She is the proud spokesperson of Positively Arts- a Las Vegas based 501c3 that connects young people to the arts.

In addition to her stage performances, business ownership, and community outreach, Lisa Marie is signed with Indie Record Label, “FERVOR RECORDS”, and released her self-titled EP in 2018 to a sold-out crowd at the Esports Arena inside the Luxor.
